Principal's Notes

Chapel – Pastor Wollman led our chapel this week. He used the immensely popular rage of text message communication to share how he had recently exchanged a loving communication with his daughter away at college. He then compared that to how God our Father has lovingly “texted” us through the blessings of his Word, the Bible. We need to stay in touch with our heavenly Father through daily reading so that we can understand the greatness of his love, as well as what his will is for our lives.

A Personal Thank you... For me personally, it is a great relief to be reunited with my wife, Jan. After having our van loaded in a driving rain in Minnesota last Thursday, we hit the road on Friday for a three day drive to Maryland. It is GREAT to be here and for Jan to have some time to get settled in, and for both of us to anticipate company from our daughter and family (three grandkids!) already next week before she begins her new job as kindergarten teacher later in the month at Advent Lutheran in Forest Hill. We have been overwhelmed, amazed, stunned... by the outpouring of gifts in the way of food, gift cards, and all varieties of assistance. We don't know all the sources of these gifts, but we are humbly grateful. You have made us feel very welcome. May the Lord bless your generosity.

Now... to get back to the job of being a principal!
Steve Schrader

Matthew 18 – Just a reminder – and it's in the Bible as well as the Handbook – that when a concern arises between two people, be they parents, parent-teacher, parent – principal, or any other parties of our school that might be in conflict over an issue, please do not talk about it with others or go to anyone else for mediation until you have personally talked to the person with whom the issue exists. Once that is done and an agreement still has not been reached, you are welcome to bring the concern to the principal and we will work out a resolution together. Please note: Many are following this process exactly already, but let's all get on this page together!

In Christ,
Mr. Schrader
